EMPLOYEE SUCCESS STORY

Dao To

Mil-Space Inventory Specialist

Meet Dao To, our Military and Space Inventory Specialist at Quantic Wenzel, who joined the team in October 2004. In her role, Dao oversees the service stock room for military and space components, ensuring a seamless and organized inventory process. Dao attributes her career development to the close collaboration and ease of working with her colleagues at Quantic Wenzel. The company's commitment to fostering a diverse team is particularly important and attractive to her, and she appreciates the inclusive culture it fosters. Dao's dedication and reliability resonate with Quantic Wenzel's values, making her an integral part of the team. Outside of work, Dao enjoys reading, frequenting the movie theater, and savoring a wide variety of her favorite Vietnamese cuisines. Her dream vacation is to tour Europe, as she has a passion for exploration. We are very proud to spotlight Dao as a valuable team member whose commitment to excellence and continuous learning embodies the company's core values. We look forward to her ongoing contributions to the success of Quantic Wenzel.

“

At Quantic Wenzel, I've found a supportive environment that values collaboration and inclusivity. My role as a Military and Space Inventory Specialist allows me to contribute to the company's success supporting mission-critical applications, and I'm proud to be part of a team that values excellence and reliability.
